MEETING COMPETITION Others Ask $15 and $18 for the Same Suit Keen competition in every walk of life nowadays demands some thought of our "clothes welfare." A man might be a crackerjack business man, possess all the good qualities so essential in his line of business, but let his appearance be anything but firstclass and he has a growing tendency to be careless. Usually he suffers for it. Model Clothes rank second to none where money value is concerned, and the price is from $5 to $8 less than you pay elsewhere.

There will be a riot of color, as well as a duel of band music, when the Shrine and Grotto teams meet in the annual Masonic baseball game at American League Park on Saturday afternoon, June 17. Proceeds of the contest go to the Masonic and Eastern Star Home fund. Three different kinds of headgear is being planned for the occasion, neutrals and rivals each having a style all their own. The victory of this horse was a popular one, as Mr. Farrell is popular among the public and turfmen.

Elsie Bonero romped home in the following race, while Bully Kean was second and Sweetle third. Edith Olga, at 10-5 shot, was absolutely last, thanks to Jockey Corey's "Wild West" riding.
